CofC in Germany and Austria

COMMUNICATION

July 9-23, 2020

PROGRAM FEE - $3,850*
*(Subject to change & does not include tuition or airfare)

Students will take one or both courses:

COMM 215: Communication, Identity, Community (3 credits)
COMM 336: Problems in Context (3 credits)

We will begin the program staying near friends of Dr. Ferrara's who relocated from Charleston to a small village outside of Frankfurt, Germany. From there we will explore several cities and southern Germany and Northern Austria including Frankfort, Heidelberg, Innsbruck, Salzburg, Freiberg, and Munich. The program is filled with street markets, festivals, homestays, hikes, cooking classes, service learning, a bike tour, and even an Alpine coaster. We will spend a lot of time having conversations with families, college students, and 20-something world travelers. The two courses (you can opt to register for one or both of the courses) will focus on intercultural (COMM 336) and interpersonal (COMM 215) communication. COMM 215 fulfills a general education requirement. Through our experiences and interactions with others, we will discuss topics like nonverbal communication, assumptions, culture shock, family communication, conflict, self-efficacy, uncertainty reduction, politeness theory, stereotypes, small group communication, etc. Please note that there will be coursework expectations for the entire summer 2 session (7/7-8/3).
