9 – Day Adventure

Our fully guided 9-day adventure takes you to some of the most spectacular places Costa Rica has to offer! You’ll see incredibly beautiful scenery, unbelievable wildlife, all the while engaging in a multitude of exotic, tropical adventures.

As always, included in the cost of our trips are our bilingual guides, hotels, transportation within Costa Rica, tours and entrance fees, and some meals. It does not include airfare, alcoholic beverages, shopping, airport tax or the optional gratuity for your primary guide.

Day 1 – March 13
Welcome

Today you’ll arrive at Juan Santamaria International Airport in San Jose where a shuttle will be waiting to transport you to your first exotic destination. From the Airport we’ll start making our way to La Fortuna and Costa Rica’s most active Volcano, Volcan Arenal!! Get a good night’s sleep, tomorrow we start the adventure!!

Day 2 – March 14
Canyoning (Waterfall Repelling & La Fortuna Waterfall Hike

Wake early for your next exotic adventure. We’ll start the day with a beautiful hike/scramble to La Fortuna falls, one of Costa Rica’s tallest and most spectacular waterfalls. Swim in one of the many pristine pools at the base of the falls, or just relax and take in the incredible natural beauty around you. Next, we’ll head up one of the nearby mountains to do some Canyoning. Once we summit, we’ll put on our dry gear and start hiking down one of the many creeks that cascade down the steep slopes. In no time at all, we’ll come to our first waterfall, a beautiful 100 footer! The only way down is to repel. Your guides will rig the ropes, give you a good demonstration, then, it’s into the abyss for you! You’ll descend through the ruggedly beautiful canyon, repelling down one waterfall after another to the vehicles waiting below.
Day 3 – March 15
Rafting the Pacuare River

Wake early for a three-day white-water rafting adventure on the Rio Pacuare. We will travel to Tres Equis where we descend through dense jungle into the heart of the Rio Pacuare gorge. This is a special river running through some of the last remaining virgin rain forest in Central America. National Geographic called the Pacuare one of the top three commercial rafting runs in the world. Between the class III + IV rapids, enjoy side hikes to beautiful waterfalls and look for sloths, monkeys and toucans in the jungle around you. Half way down the river we’ll pull over at our amazing riverside lodge. Sip on a tropical drink or explore the surrounding wilderness while your guides prepare a delicious jungle meal in the fully equipped open-air kitchen.

Day 4 – March 16
Guided Nature Hike to a Cabecar Indigenous Village.

Today, after a hearty pancake breakfast prepared by your trusty guides, you’ll do a guided nature hike deep into the rainforest. Along the way, your guide will point out and explain all of the tropical flora and fauna you encounter. This is one of the most bio-diverse and pristine areas in the world and you’re sure to encounter more amazing wildlife than you ever thought possible! Our final destination is a small Cabecar Village. The Cabecar are the original indigenous inhabitants of the Pacuare Valley and they still live in much the same way as their pre-Columbian forefathers. Today will truly be a day you’ll never forget.....
Day 5 – March 17
Local Indigenous School Project

Today we do a short half hour hike to a local Elementary School in the heart of the Rainforest dedicated to the indigenous children in the area. Once there, the group will conduct a service project throughout the morning (project will depend on the school’s needs at the time)... Then, the group will enjoy a lunch with the students and perhaps a soccer game before heading back to the Lodge...

Day 6 – March 18
Pacuare River &
Transfer to the Caribbean!!

Today we’ll start with another delicious breakfast and then it’s another big day on the Pacuare’s many Rapids. We’ll stop on of the many sandy beaches along the way for lunch and perhaps a River side siesta before setting off for the final stretch. From the take-out we’ll take the short drive to one of Costa Rica’s most beautiful beaches, Cahuita. From Whitewater to white sand, you be basking on the sandy Caribbean beach before you know it!!
Day 7 & 8 – March 19 & 20
Beach Time!!

Sleep late (after the last few days, you’ve earned it!). Soak up some rays, hit the waves, snorkel, or choose from a multitude of other cool activities—either way, just relax and have fun!

Day 9 - March 21
San Jose

After breakfast, depart for the airport where you’ll return home with great memories of a perfect tropical vacation.
